83. On or about April 8th and 9th, 2022, the Plaintiff's Decedent, DWAYNE HASKINS, was a business invitee, lawfully and properly, on the Defendant's premises located at 29 NE 11th St, Miami, Miami-Dade County, Florida.

84. As such, Defendant, E11EVEN, owed Plaintiff, in his capacity as a business invitee on Defendant's premises, a duty of reasonable care to maintain and operate the premises in a reasonably safe condition for the safety of business invitees on the premises, which include reasonable efforts to keep premises free from dangerous and hazardous conditions that might foreseeably give rise to loss, injury, or damage and to exercise reasonable care to take actions to reduce, minimize or eliminate foreseeable risks that pose a dangerous condition on the premises.

85. Despite said duty, the Defendant, E11EVEN, was negligent, and breached the aforesaid duty by allowing patrons to use drugs and to drug other patrons, including the Plaintiff, even when Defendant's own employees were in attendance and observing same.

86. As a direct and proximate result of the negligent acts and/or omissions of this Defendant, E11EVEN, by and through its employees, agents, servants, and/or contractors, the Plaintiff was drugged directly and proximately causing and/or contributing to cause the subject incident, and Plaintiff's Decedent, DWAYNE HASKINS, was injured and died.

87. As a further direct, proximate, and foreseeable result of the acts and/or omissions of this Defendant, the Plaintiff seeks all damages legally provided by the Florida Wrongful Death Act Florida Statute §768.16 – §768.26.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, KALABRYA HASKINS, as Personal Representative for the ESTATE OF DWAYNE HASKINS, demands judgment for damages against the Defendant, E11EVEN, according to law together with interest and costs and demands a trial by jury of all issues so triable as a matter of right.
